IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.29668 of 2008
ABDUL SATAR & ANR
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR

3. 20.11.2008 Petitioners who are father-in-law and mother-in-law of the complainant are present. The complainant herself is present in court. Husband of the complainant who is a teacher, is also present in court.

It transpires that subsequent to the order dated 20.11.2008; the complainant was brought by the petitioners to her matrimonial home. She is residing with her husband, father-in-law and mother-in-law. Still she has some complaints but those are minors and expected to subside with passing of the time. Petitioners have given assurance of good treatment to the complainant. It has also been assured that they will keep the complainant as daughter. Believing this assurance, provisional bail granted to Abdul Satar and Aabda Khatoon in connection with Complaint Case No. 840/07 is confirmed. They will remain on same bail bonds. However, the complainant is also directed to try her level best to live peacefully with her family. She has opportunity to approach this court in case behaviour of the petitioners and her husband changes

WEB COPY NOT OFFICIAL

AKV/ (Mridula Mishra, J)